

Regional Council Executive

Nominations Deadline: June 4, 2021

At this time, we are seeking one (1) member who is under 30.

Regional Council Executive

Membership of the Regional Council Executive is elected by the General Meeting of the Regional Council. In the establishment of the Regional Council, it was determined that the Executive will consist of eleven (11) to thirteen (13) people including the President, President-Elect or Past-President and the Executive Minister. No one will be a member by "virtue of office" in another Council, Committee or Organization.

The membership will include people who:

- connect to and listen well to the people of the Region;
- articulate the perspectives of the Region;
- consider the well-being of the whole Region;
- hold "the big picture" front and centre in decision making;
- have good individual and group judgment and discernment skills;
- bring skills in church and community governance.

The membership will reflect the many diversities of the Region as far as possible including:

- Gender
- Age
- Indigenous Identity
- Urban, Rural, Geography
- Culture
- Ordered and Lay

The President has the discretion to invite "corresponding members" to particular meetings to ensure needed viewpoints or information needed are present during discernment and decision-making.

The Executive will be a governance body, focusing on:

- Ensuring it is well-informed and knowledgeable about the church and society, particularly in a context of constant change;
- Listening well to the people and communities of faith of the Region;
- Articulating together the vision and desires of the Region;
- Naming the desired outcomes of the work of the Region;
- Directing the Executive Minister through clear policies;
- Using Policy Governance policies and practices as the operating model;
- Monitoring and evaluating the work of the Executive Minister against the stated policies to ensure fiduciary responsibilities and expected Region outcomes are met;
- Selecting and appointing an Executive Minister in partnership with other appropriate church councils.
